HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

by: Parth Bhadauriya

I call my mom 'Mummy', and sometimes 'Maa' also.

My mom cooks the best vermicelli and pasta in the world.

She is great at mentoring, cooking, housekeeping, storytelling, gardening etc.
By the way, she is also good at scolding me. 😊

My mom always says to me to be the best version of me and achieve success.

I love it when she pats me on my back, for doing something good or for achieving any success.

My mom and I likes to have a short conversation with each-other every day at night, in which we discuss about the things happened that day.

I love my mom because she gave me the gift of life and raised me to an honest and responsible person. She always cares for me and supports me when I'm right. She also frankly scolds me when I do something wrong — my best critic. 😊
